The base ball cituation at present is attracting much attention, and the close race of the leaders lends additional interest. By lesing to the Firstes yesterday Baltimore dropped seven points and allowed the Boston aggregation to pass them. The day witnessed the first one-hundredth game of the season, St. Louis reaching there first. Uleveland also lost, and the Quaker City ciub is fast approaching fourth place.

THE REPAIRS

To the Vigilant will Occopy Some Time. No Prospects of an Immediate Hace. SOUTHAMPTON, August 20.—Captain Haff to-day referring to the mishap to the Vigilant on Saturday owing to her centreboard touching a rock off the Needles while preparing to race for Lord Wolverton's cup, said that as soon as Wolverton's cup, said that as soon as the sloop reached smooth water the top of the centreboard trunk was taken entirely off and the centreboard was found wedged inside and six feet down. The Vigilant's commander added that the diver found yesterday that the connection of the centreboard was broken and that the board itself was wedged in the after end of the trunk. The diver also announced that the centreboard chain was carried away and said that in his opinion a new casting by which to hang the board must be made before the latter can again be used.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of the Army of West Virginia at Ironton Ohio-Wheeling Speakers on the Pro-

The Army of West Virginia, What remembrances the phrase brings up to the minds of the surviving members of that once grand organization, now decimated by the attacking legions of time, during the past thirty years. The army at whose hoad was one of the men whose distinguishing quafities won for him the highest honor in the gift of a nation—an honor higher than that which graces the position of any of earth's kings and emperors, whom chance of birth elevates above their superiors—Ratherford B. Hayes.

The sixteenth annual rounion of the Army of West Virginia, to be held at Ironton, Ohio, next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 29, 30 and 31, rocalls the time three years ago when General Hayes passed through this city on route to its annual regulator, where he mingled with the soldiers of his old command. decimated by the attacking legions of
